EXPLANATION:

Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel was proposed by HHSC's insurer to undertake representation of an insured in a time-sensitive ongoing litigation matter, due to all other firms on our panel list of law firms being either conflicted out of the care, unable to accept new cases at the moment, or not approved by the insured. Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel has done prior good work for HHSC's insurer (Allied World) and is immediately available to represent the insured, and does not have any significant conflicts regarding the case. The Goodsill firm is fairly large by Hawaii standards and well known; it has a good reputation for handling a variety of matters, including employment law. HHSC has utilized a different team of excellent lawyers at the firm to defend a number of professional liability (medical malpractice) matters for multiple years.
